

Our Mission

PubLife exists to serve the ones who serve us.

We provide dignified, efficient financial assistance for unforeseen medical expenses to hospitality workers in our community.

Hospitality professionals spend their lives serving others and supporting the communities we call home. Yet many workers in the industry face significant financial vulnerability when unexpected medical emergencies arise.

PubLife was created to help bridge that gap through direct assistance, community partnerships, fundraising initiatives, and long-term support systems built specifically for hospitality workers throughout the greater Kansas City metropolitan area.

PubLife serves members of the food, beverage, and hospitality industries throughout the greater Kansas City metropolitan area, including support staff and behind-the-scenes workers who help keep the industry moving every day.

Community Support

As a growing 501(c)(3) nonprofit organization, PubLife is actively seeking community partners, sponsorships, raffle and silent auction donations, gift cards, merchandise, and financial contributions to help support ongoing assistance efforts and future community initiatives.

Thank you for supporting hospitality workers and the communities they serve.

Partnership Opportunities

PubLife partnerships are built around community collaboration and flexible support.

We understand every business supports the hospitality community differently, and we welcome partnerships of all sizes.

- Raffle or giveaway donations
- Gift cards or hospitality experiences
- Event sponsorships
- Community giveback nights
- Tournament or event hosting
- Merchandise or branded donations

Community Visibility

PubLife is committed to recognizing and promoting the businesses that help support hospitality workers through:

- Website partner listings on PubLife.org
- Social media recognition
- Event signage and promotions
- Collaborative marketing opportunities

Thank you for supporting the people who help serve our communities every day.

If you do not have a number, see how to get a TIN, later.

For real estate transactions, item 2 does not apply. For mortgage interest paid, acquisition or abandonment of secured property, cancellation of debt, contributions to an individual retirement arrangement (IRA), and, generally, payments other than interest and dividends, you are not required to sign the certification, but you must provide your correct TIN. See the instructions for Part II, later.

Dear Applicant:

We're pleased to tell you we determined you're exempt from federal income tax under Internal Revenue Code (IRC) Section 501(c)(3). Donors can deduct contributions they make to you under IRC Section 170. You're also qualified to receive tax deductible bequests, devises, transfers or gifts under Section 2055, 2106, or 2522. This letter could help resolve questions on your exempt status. Please keep it for your records.

Organizations exempt under IRC Section 501(c)(3) are further classified as either public charities or private foundations. We determined you're a public charity under the IRC Section listed at the top of this letter.

If we indicated at the top of this letter that you're required to file Form 990/990-EZ/990-N, our records show you're required to file an annual information return (Form 990 or Form 990-EZ) or electronic notice (Form 990-N, the e-Postcard). If you don't file a required return or notice for three consecutive years, your exempt status will be automatically revoked.

If we indicated at the top of this letter that an addendum applies, the enclosed addendum is an integral part of this letter.

For important information about your responsibilities as a tax-exempt organization, go to www.irs.gov/charities. Enter "4221-PC" in the search bar to view Publication 4221-PC, Compliance Guide for 501(c)(3) Public Charities, which describes your recordkeeping, reporting, and disclosure requirements.
